SPEAKER CHURCH OF CHRIST

The series of meetings which lasted two weeks conducted by the Evangelist D. H. Jackson, of Jordan, Ont., in the Church of Christ, Speaker township were closed Wednesday evening of last week with seven additions, four confessions, and three uniting. Mr. Jackson is a young man about 32 years old and a powerful speaker from the word of God. His teaching of the gospel is so plain a small child can understand. This was his fourth meeting and the wish of the congregation is that his life may be spared to speak to them many more times.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The services at this church next Sabbath, the 29th, will all be in celebration of "Rally Day." They will include everybody, from primary class to Octogenarian. The Sunday school with a very pretty little exercise will occupy the morning hour, 10:30 o'clock. No other Sunday school service. Every member of the church, every member of congregation, and every friend of both, is earnestly urged to be on hand at this service. Let it be "Rally Day" indeed. In the evening Dr. Hunter will preach a special sermon, appropriate to the day. Good musical program at this hour. This church cordially invites everybody to come and share the pleasures of the day. Hours: morning 10:30 evening 7:30. Please be on time.

"The Irish Piper."

This makes the third season of the above funny Irish Comedy, and millions of people have laughed at this matchless, side-splitting Irish Comedy. This splendid company of fun makers is well recommended wherever they appear and is beyond doubt the funniest Irish Comedy on the road. Three long acts of constant laughter and mechanical surprises, elegantly costumed and produced with special scenery befitting the locality the action of the play is founded in, and a cast of characters picked from the ranks of the leading comedy artists, both ladies and gentlemen, fitted for the parts assigned to them in "The Irish Piper" which will appear at Central Hall on Tuesday, Oct. 1st, for one night only. Don't wait until the above date to secure your seats for this attraction, but get your seats at once at the usual reserved seat sale and avoid the rush at the door, as this attraction will be presented at popular prices. Lovers of good clean comedy will secure their seats at once.

Princess Theatre.

The sweet singer, Miss Ray Ogden and her company will be at the Princess Theatre one solid week, starting Monday, Sept. 30, and will offer the best sketches, plays and vaudeville work ever seen in this city. This company, consisting of five (5) people come highly recommended, and if you enjoy good wholesome comedy and up-to-date sketches, don't miss seeing these at the Princess, starting Monday, Sept. 30. Watch for bills giving particulars and program for the week. Special music each night.

Pleasant Evening Spent.

A pleasant party was given at the home of Evangeline Hydon on Monday evening as a surprise and in honor of Doretta Smith, who with her mother, sister and brother expect to make their future home in the state of Washington. About 20 young people were present and spent a most enjoyable time at this hospitable home. A dainty lunch was thoroughly enjoyed.

Estray Notice.

Masonic School of Instruction.

A Masonic school of instruction for Brockway and Brown City lodges was held in the hall at Yale Wednesday afternoon and evening. Brown City lodge was expected to be here and confer the second degree in the afternoon but for some reason the word did not reach the present officers and they failed to make their appearance at that time but reached here for the evening.

Worshipful Master Cavanagh filled the stations with Chas. Reynolds of Peck, E. L. Vincent and David Martin of Port Huron and the work was exceptionally well carried out. Grand Lecturer Gilbert having but very few suggestions to make.

Brockway lodge had the work in hand for the evening and the large hall was well filled by Masons from Port Huron, Brown City, Peck and other places to see the third degree exemplified. Oscar Denison of Yale was raised from a Fellow Craft to a Master Mason. Grand Lecturer Gilbert expressed himself as highly pleased with the splendid work of Yale lodge and was more than delighted at the large attendance, over 100 being present.

After lodge was closed it was announced that a midnight supper was in waiting in the basement of the Presbyterian church, prepared by the ladies of that society. Here was where a great many of the members who had no previous chance to exhibit themselves were right in line with the best of them and did justice to the fine spread of stewed chicken, mashed potatoes, salad, buns, celery, tea, coffee, cake, in fact everything the heart (or stomach) could wish.

The Masonic School of Instruction for 1912 at Yale will long be remembered as one of much benefit to every member present.

Marshall-Smith.

The marriage of Miss Grace Belle Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Smith of Worth township, Sanilac Co., to Mr. John A. Marshall of Fremont township, took place at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 18, 1912. Elder James S. Wood of Yale, performing the ceremony.

Miss Evelyn Smith attended the bride as maid of honor and Mr. Dan Barnes acted as groomsmen.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. The happy couple received a number of valuable and useful presents. The young couple have the respect and best wishes of all.
